Please provide an original, original notarized copy or confirmation of your degree of your medical degree

Confirmation of your medical degree can be provided in one of the following ways:

1. When you submit your medical degree to physiciansapply.ca for source verification, "share" that document with the CPSNS; or
2. Submit a copy of your medical degree certified by a notary public or commissioner of oaths; or
3. Present the original document in the College office. A photocopy will be made at that time.

All documents not in English, must be accompanied by an original notarized copy of an official translation. Excluded from this requirement are medical degrees or diplomas issued by a Canadian medical school.

Applications for registration/licensure will not be processed until all officially translated documents are received by the College. A translation service is offered through physiciansapply.ca.

Please see College Policy Translation of Documents.
