Dear Doctor:

I write to advise there is an election forthcoming for a position on the College's Council. We are now accepting nominations for this position in District 1, which covers the counties of Antigonish, Guysborough, Inverness, Richmond, Victoria, and Cape Breton.

The Council is the governing board of the College, responsible for providing oversight and setting strategic direction. The College's mission is "to serve the public by effectively regulating the medical profession."

The College, through its Council, depends on physician engagement. If you are interested in running for Council, or know someone who is interested, please review this package for more information about serving on Council and for instructions on submitting a nomination.

Yours,

D.A. (Gus) Grant
Registrar and CEO

ELIGIBILITY

You are eligible to serve on Council if you:

- Are a member in good standing; and you
- Practise medicine in Electoral District 1 effective February 25, 2022 OR you are not currently practising medicine but you live in Electoral District 1 effective February 25, 2022; and you
- Do not sit on a Board or represent a health organization whose mission may conflict with that of the College. This includes but is not limited to: Doctors Nova Scotia, Canadian Medical Association, and the Canadian Medical Protective Association.

COMMITMENT

Term Length	The term for an elected member of Council is three years, starting at the end of May of the election year.
Participation	Elected members serve on Council and on at least one committee of Council.
Meeting Schedule	All meetings are held during business hours and occasionally extend into the late afternoon. Council meets 4 times per year, typically on a Friday for half a day. Council meetings are preceded by a 1.5 hour meeting late in the day, a few days before the full Council meeting. Committee meeting frequency varies.
Time	The time commitment to serve on Council is approximately 20 hours of meeting time per year, plus preparation time. The time commitment to serve on a committee could range from 10 to 50 meeting hours per year, plus preparation time.
Preparation	Council and committee members receive a package of information two weeks before a meeting to prepare them to discuss the issues on the agenda. The time needed to prepare for meetings can range from one to several hours, depending on the committee and the physician's familiarity with the subject matter.

COMPENSATION

Council and committee members are paid an hourly fee for time spent in meetings. They are also reimbursed for travel and accommodation expenses incurred while on College business.
